The Coast Community Builders Association is committed to respecting others' intellectual property rights, and we ask that users of this website do the same.

The CCBA may, in its sole discretion, terminate the accounts or access rights of users who violate others' intellectual property rights.

If you believe that your work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement on this Website, please deliver the following information to The CCBA Executive Director:

1. An electronic or physical signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner;
2. A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed;
3. A description of where the material that you claim is infringing is located on this Website;
4. Your address, telephone number and e-mail address so that we can contact you;
5. A statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law; and
6. A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the information in your notice to us is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.
